THE POPE RALLIES.

Early Wednesday Morning His Condition Was No Worse Than on Monday.

SUFFERED SPELLS OF DELIRIUM.

Two Hours After Making All Preparations For Death the Pontiff Got Out of Bed.

Unsatisfied With This Exhibition of Vitality He Transacted Private Business and Received Four Cardinals in Audience.

Rome, July 15.—Another remarkable rally in Pope Leo's condition occurred Tuesday afternoon after a morning in the course of which his holiness suffered spells of delirium and at times his strength sank to the lowest ebb and Wednesday morning he lies in no worse condition than he was on Monday evening, except for the steady diminution of his strength. Mgr. Bisleti, master of the chamber, visited the sick room just after midnight and on entering stated that the pontiff's condition was unchanged. A little later the pope fell into a sleep, which it has just been announced is fairly tranquil, although the patient's respiration is troublesome.

Tuesday's rally was characteristically opposed to every medical theory and consisted in getting out of bed, on which two hours previously the pope himself had made all preparations for death.

Physicians Seem Perplexed.

Unsatisfied with this exhibition of vitality, he transacted private business and received four cardinals, with whom he talked in an animated way. In fact, Pope Leo's record for Tuesday, little of which appeared in Tuesday night's official bulletin, would be incredible if it was not confirmed by the doctors and cardinals present in the sick chamber. None seem more perplexed than the doctors themselves. Dr. Laponi said frankly: "I can not imagine how the pope manages to keep alive."

According to the physicians, the pontiff may die at any moment, even in the midst of one of these extraordinary intervals when his mind and body present a comparatively sound appearance.

All those around the patient have long since ceased to hold definite opinions regarding the duration of the pontiff's existence. The slow progressive diminution of the strength of the august patient foretells the approaching end of the struggle with death, but the doctors will not venture to predict how near the end is.

GRADUALLY WEARING DOWN.

The Constant Relapses Are Telling on the Pope's Vitality.

Constant relapses they say, such as created alarm Tuesday, are gradually wearing down the pope's constitution, which seems immune from any specific disease. Most persons are inclined to the idea that the pope may go through perhaps two or three repetitions of Tuesday's ups and downs, till, as Dr. Rossini puts it, "his pulse stops forever."

Three causes may accelerate the end, viz.: Continued inability to take nourishment, which was exhibited Tuesday, sudden heart failure or the progression of pleura diseases, the latter is thought the least probable. As day succeeds day, it becomes pathologically clear that it is a case of a very old man dying because he has lived his allotted time.

Ready For His Final Departure.

The pope himself Tuesday afternoon ordered the four cardinals to be admitted and received them standing. He, who is supposed to be at the point of death, saying: "Please be seated." He recounted the impressive ceremony of the morning when he received the benediction of the Franciscan order. The cardinals informed him of the world-wide prayers for his life. Pope Leo answered that he was much gratified, but that he was ready for his final departure, concluding by saying: "God's will be done." Even more striking was the pope's interview with his secretary, Mgr. Angeli. His holiness sent for him, saying that he wished to see certain papers, which the secretary brought. Then, after a short explanation, Mgr. Angeli wished to get the pope's decision on the matter, but Pope Leo said: "Well, well, not today. We will do that some other time."

Brewery For Bowling Green.

Bowling Green, Ky., July 15.—St. Paul and Duluth people made a deal here for four acres of land and will at once begin the construction of a brewery which is to cost $200,000.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Fierce Struggle Between Candidates For Governor.

Louisville, Ky., July 15.—On account of the fierce struggle between two Louisville candidates for governor, the republican state convention which will be opened in Louisville Wednesday afternoon promises to be a thoroughly exciting one. The hotels have begun to fill up with the delegates, the full representation amounting to 2,270 votes in the convention. The situation in the race for governor has apparently reached a phase where the nomination of a dark horse will follow the failure of the Belknap forces to win on the first two ballots. There are three avowed candidates in the field: Col. Morris B. Belknap, a Louisville wholesale merchant; Hon. E. Augustus Willson, a Louisville lawyer, and Judge Clifton J. Pratt, state's attorney general.

The Belknap leaders are claiming the nomination of their candidate on the first ballot, his strength being estimated at from 900 to 1,200 votes.

The state central committee met Tuesday night and selected Maj. Wm. C. Owens to act as temporary chairman. John W. Yerkes has been offered the permanent chairmanship, but it is understood that he desires to head the committee on resolutions in order that Roosevelt's interests may be looked after. There is an element fairly respectable in numbers which opposes an endorsement of President Roosevelt's candidacy at this time, but as it is part of the Belknap strength, it is not believed that the anti-administration men will jeopardize the chances of their candidate for governor by opposing Roosevelt resolutions. These resolutions in so far as they concern the tariff and trust question will be of the "stand pat" flavor, the sentiment in this regard being practically unanimous.

HARVEY LOGAN.

He Shot Two Men Who Attempted to Arrest Him.

Adairville, Ky., July 15.—It is reported that a stranger made his appearance near Red Oak Tuesday and was recognized by Russell Ellis and Ernest Fox as Harvey Logan. They procured weapons and attempted his arrest. A battle ensued, but Logan was too quick for them. Ellis was shot through the chest and Fox was wounded in the head. Three shots were effective. Logan made good his escape.

Logan is the bank robber who recently escaped from prison in Knoxville.

FATHER OF "YUBA DAM."

Man That Helped to Found the Town of That Name Dead.

Frankfort, Ky., July 15.—Lewis D. Mangan, aged 78, former mayor of Frankfort, died Tuesday night. He was one of the California "forty-niners," and helped to establish the town of Yuba Dam in that state. He spent several years there and in Central America. When he returned to Kentucky he married and his only son was named Yuba Dam for the California town. That son is now chief of police of Frankfort.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

A Two Days' Session Was Closed at Frankfort, Ky.

Frankfort, Ky., July 15.—The democratic state central committee closed a two days' session here Tuesday afternoon, recommending Charles B. Poyntz, of Maysville, to Gov. Beckham as the party's representative on the Kentucky election commission. The committee decided the Bell-Sauley and the Cook-Brush contests for circuit judgeship nomination in favor of the first named in each case.

Prisoners Escaped.

Barboursville, Ky., July 15.—Four prisoners, at work on the streets, escaped from the officers by slipping the chains which bound them to iron balls. One was chained by his foot, and escaped by taking off his shoe. After a desperate chase, through the main part of town, all escaped.

Poolroom Owners Fined.

Covington, Ky., July 15.—The Covington poolroom proprietors pleaded guilty to the indictments returned some weeks ago by the Kenton county grand jury. A jury in each case returned fines of $50 against the proprietors, making in all $200.

Eighty-Year-Old Pumpkin.

Petersburg, Ky., July 15.—Henry N. Gordon has a pumpkin that is 80 years old. It was placed in a cellar by his grandparents 80 years ago, and it began to petrify, and is now as hard as a stone. It still retains its rich yellow color.

Louisville, Ky., July 15.—While sitting on his porch Tuesday night Hugh B. Stultz, a carpenter, sneezed so violently that he fractured a rib.

THRILLING RESCUE.

New York Woman Fell a Distance of 300 Feet Over a Crevasse in California.

MIRACULOUSLY ESCAPED DEATH.

She Lodged Upon a Projecting Ledge Only Two Feet Wide Badly Bruised and Scratched.

A Rescuing Party Tied a Rope to the Inanimate Form and Lowered it to Another Ledge a Hundred Feet Below.

Yosemite Valley, Cal., July 15.—Mrs. Johns, of New York city, who has been staying in the valley for a few days, was found Tuesday morning in a steep crevasse back of Sentinel Dome. Monday Mrs. Johns started from Glacier Point hotel to walk to Fissures, located some two miles from the hotel. Mrs. Lewis, the manager of the hotel, cautioned her against going too far without a guide and admonished her not to remain after daylight began to fall, as there was grave danger of losing the trail. Monday night Mrs. Johns did not return and Mrs. Lewis realized that something had happened. Early Tuesday morning the searching parties started out, one of them making a discovery that filled the searchers with horror. Far down one of the sides of the Sentinel fissure, whose crevasses drop down in some places for thousands of feet, suspended on a ledge that jutted out from the side of the narrow canon, the almost lifeless form of Mrs. Johns was found by Mr. Potter, a hotel clerk. She was too weak to speak, but was able by feeble signs to make Mr. Potter know that she still lived. After trying in vain to work his way down the mountain side to her, Mr. Potter was forced to the hotel for help.

The relief party found Mrs. Johns' position to be critical in the extreme. Her escape from a frightful death had been nothing less than miraculous. She had fallen a distance of 300 feet from the crevasse walls and had partially broken her fall by catching in juniper bushes and scrub trees, through whose branches she had plunged. When a rope had been lowered, Mr. Potter descended to examine the ground and determine the best course to pursue in getting Mrs. Johns from her perilous position. There, lodged upon a two foot ledge, with her clothing torn in fragments and her flesh scratched and bruised, lay Mrs. Johns, weak from exhaustion and lack of food and benumbed by the frosty chill of the night.

With difficulty the rope was securely tied around Mrs. Johns' waist and an effort made to help her to the rim above. This attempt proved futile because of Mrs. Johns' weight. By leaning over the abrupt precipice, Mr. Potter could discern another and larger ledge 100 feet below, from which was a sheer drop of 100 feet. He determined to try this plan of rescue. Giving the order to those above to lower the rope, Mr. Potter swung the inanimate form of Mrs. Johns out of the tiny strip of rock upon which she had braced herself for 15 hours and into the chasm beneath. By swinging the rope to and fro Mr. Potter was able to lodge the body of Mrs. Johns upon the larger ledge and then descended himself. Calling to one of the mountain guides above, Mr. Potter had him drop the rope to the ledge upon which all three were now resting. Then the two picked up Mrs. Johns and together they reached the rim above once more. Mrs. Johns is suffering much from nervous shock, but as no bones were fractured she will recover.

The Bernard Sunday school thankfully appreciates the invitation extended them to meet with the Sunday school that convenes at Cherry Grove Friday, July 17th.

The shower Saturday evening prevented many from attending the picnic given by the Stone Lick Sunday school at the Sedden Grove.

The special train carrying the Sunday schools to Parks Hill Wednesday arrived at the Bernard Station about 8 o'clock, where was occasioned a short delay necessitated by the return of the engine to the foot of the hill to secure the three heavy laden coaches that had been detached.

The Bernard Sunday school was in waiting to join the happy and delighted excursionists, with the exception of our thoughtful and worthy Superintendent, Mr. Brodt, he taking a later train. Standing room was about all that could be awarded this little crowd, numbering twenty-four. With no delay and few stops, the train after a delightful run through the beautiful country reached its destination. After some little delay in the arrangement of the lunch baskets, the ascent was then made to the lofty and delightful grounds, where were extended cordial treatment and unbounded accommodations at the hands of Mr. Taylor, the generous proprietor. The grounds were lovely with the quiet old Licking slumbering at its feet, and while looking down into its placid waters, that memorable historic event is brought to mind when at the instance of the hot-headed General Logan, its quiet waters ran with blood, but the day was too happy and joyous to admit of sad thoughts. So attention is turned towards the dinner. President Duley was deserving of immense praise and commendation for his efforts and untiring energy to make the affair one of pleasure and thorough enjoyment. His voice was continually heard during the dinner hour calling through the crowd to see if any had not been supplied with dinner, "There was plenty for all and none need remain hungry." His short talks were interesting and often amusing, eliciting many encores and cheers from the assemblage in the auditorium. His frequent calls for the Superintendents of the several schools gave evidence that they too were enjoying a picnic some where in the lovely grounds. He was much elated with the impression created on Mr. Taylor, who stated it was the most orderly and well-behaved crowd, either large or small, that had ever visited the grounds.

POGUE & C. VS. ROSS & C.

Opinion of Court of Appeals in a Case Taken Up From Mason Circuit Court.

In affirming the judgment of the Mason Circuit Court in the above mentioned case, the Court of Appeals says:

S. borrowed $5,000 from his sister, for which he executed an obligation to hold it in trust for the benefit of herself and children. Appellants signed same as sureties. In an action to recover the amount of said loan appellees insist that they are not bound for same, as the entire amount was not loaned to S. at the time the obligation was executed, and that after they signed same the paper was altered by adding thereto without their knowledge or consent the provision that additional sureties would be added if desired by the beneficiary. They also insist that by the terms of the instrument the money was to be invested in stock of a distillery company for the beneficiaries, and that if there is any liability on the part of the sureties it is only for the residue over and above the value of said stock.

Held—That although S. did not receive all the money at the date of the obligation he subsequently received it and the obligation speaks from that time, and not from its date.

The obligation was a loan of the money and not an investment in the stock for the benefit of the beneficiaries. The proof as to the alteration of the instrument being conflicting and the lapses of the sureties in pleading the alteration satisfies the court that the decision of the Chancellor below in favor of the integrity of the paper is sustained.

W. H. Mackoy, Pogue & Pogue for appellants; C. L. Sallee, Breckinridge & Shelby for appellees.

Saturday's rain did considerable damage to crops and fencing on Brandy Wine and Clarke's Run.

VISIT TERMINATED

Rr. Adm. Cotton Gave Reception on Board Flagship Kearsarge at Portsmouth, Eng.

TO LEAVE ENGLISH WATERS FRIDAY

Admiral's Flag Will Be Transferred to the Chicago and Squadron Will Proceed to Lisbon.

The Kearsarge Will Begin Her Speed Trial Across the Atlantic—Officers Pleased With Their Reception in England.

Portsmouth, Eng., July 15.—With the reception given on board Rr. Adm. Cotton's flagship Kearsarge Tuesday afternoon the official visit of the American squadron to England terminated. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert will leave Portsmouth harbor Wednesday and receive the salutes of the warships as she steams out. On Friday when outside Spithead Adm. Cotton will transfer his flag to the Chicago and proceed with the San Francisco and Machias to Lisbon, while the Kearsarge will begin her speed trial across the Atlantic.

"Our reception in England has been most cordial and enthusiastic," said Rr. Adm. Cotton. "Nothing could exceed the courtesy extended to us on all sides, the king and prince of Wales, the officials of the government and officers of the army and navy to the people of London and Portsmouth. I have no doubt that the result of the visit of the American squadron will prove beneficial in the extreme, and that it will tend to strengthen the cordial relations which have long existed between the two countries."

Adm. Cotton is highly gratified at the receipt of a photograph from the prince of Wales bearing the inscription "George, Portsmouth, July 13, 1903."

Were "Killed With Kindness."

Adm. Cotton and the other American officers gave Capt. Hemphill all the honor for the part played by the Kearsarge, whose presence contributed in such a remarkable degree to the success of the visit. "We have been killed with kindness," said Capt. Hemphill. "Our reception could not have been better in any shape or form. I had the pleasure of meeting people in the English service whom I have not seen for many years, among others that charming officer, Capt. Bayly, whom I met before when in England, through the order of the late Queen Victoria in doing honor to America by assigning one of her best ironclads to convey the remains of the philanthropist, George Peabody, to Portland. It is impossible to express our appreciation of the courtesies shown us and we are deeply indebted, especially to Adm. Sir Charles F. Hotham, commander-in-chief at Portsmouth, Capt. Arbuthnot and Capt. Sir Archibald Milne."

In order to provide a satisfactory buoy for the Kearsarge the royal yacht moved the ship to another position, her place being occupied by Adm. Cotton's flagship.

By the route that Capt. Hemphill has selected for the speed trial the Kearsarge must steam 2,852 miles. On her way to Southampton she made 3,245 miles. She is thus expected to take less time on her impending voyage. Capt. Hemphill commanded the Buffalo, which established the record of 39 days on the run from New York to Manila, and the officers of the Kearsarge are satisfied that with the excellent coal supplies and the vessel's moderately clean bottom, the record for a battleship will be broken.

ACCIDENTS from "toy" pistols, causing lockjaw, have resulted in over twenty deaths in the United States since the Fourth of July. They ought to be classed as "deadly weapons" and their sale prohibited by law. Children, at least, should not be permitted to handle them.

A UNITED FRONT.

The meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee at Frankfort Monday practically effected a settlement of the troubles that confronted the party and the outlook is much brighter than it was a week ago. Chairman Young has been taught a wholesome lesson,—a lesson he ought to have learned long ago, and that is that he is not the "whole push" and can not run the party as he pleases. The campaign will be conducted by a splendid committee composed of party leaders from all sections of the State, and an old time victory is now confidently anticipated. Commenting on the meeting of the committee at Frankfort Monday, the Lexington Herald has this to say:

The net result is the adjudication of the various controversies and the union of the party for the coming campaign. And so far as we can judge, the action of the committee was wise. The campaign committee is composed of gentlemen fairly representing the various sections of the State—gentlemen of standing in their respective communities, of conspicuity in their profession and of regular party standing. We are not sufficiently acquainted with the organizing, executive capacity of these gentlemen to judge of their fitness for this work, but they are entitled to the respect of all parties and to the full confidence of the Democratic party. We do not recall a more respectable and excellent campaign committee. The advisory committee, composed of two members from each Congressional district, consists of Democrats of established reputation in their respective districts, and has been selected with care and unusual discretion. This action clears the deck for efficient conduct of the campaign. It leaves some sores, but this was inevitable. How serious is the dissatisfaction in Louisville we have no means of knowing. And we presume the result in Louisville will depend largely on the action of the Republican convention. There will be some soreness here. But it ought to be only temporary and not dangerous to the success of the ticket in this city.

DESTROYED BY DOGS.

Nearly $700 Worth of Sheep and Lambs Killed by Worthless Curs Near Forman's Chapel, Since Feb. 1st.

Since the first of February last, within a radius of three miles of Forman's Chapel, 138 sheep and lambs have been killed by dogs, as follows: Joe Fields 18, Wm. Tally 20, Ben Clark 8, Mrs. Allen Grover 9, Cal Arthur 13, Ed. Herndon 8, Ernie Doyle 2, Austin Smith 3, Ben Hixson 8, William Pyles 19, Henry Pyles 2, Alex. Shephard 2, George Flanagan 2, Alex. Caywood 6, G. W. Stiles 6, Bruce Moore 6, Henry Stout 6.

The 138 killed, at $5 per head, makes a money loss of $690.

Isn't it about time the Legislature placed a tax on dogs to pay for such losses as above?

D. HUNT & SON

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Ernest Hafer Attempted to Board a C. and O. Freight and Was Cut to Pieces.

Ernest Hafer, aged seventeen, met a horrible death between 7 and 8 o'clock Tuesday evening while attempting to board C. and O. freight train No. 72 at the coal docks near the fair grounds. He missed his footing and was terribly mangled by the trucks, Coroner Wood later held an inquest, the verdict being in accordance with the above. His remains will be buried to-day.

Hafer was a son of Nathan Hafer who lives on Short street. For some time a gang of boys of his age have been making it a daily practice to jump freight trains, ride to the coal docks or some other point east of here and then catch a west-bound train for home. His terrible fate ought to be a warning to the others,—but it won't.

Electric vs. Steam Railways.

It will perhaps surprise some persons to learn that electric railways carry eight times as many passengers as steam railways carry. There are 987 electric railway companies, against 2,057 steam railway companies. The electric roads have 16,648 miles of line, against 497,237 miles of steam line. The former have 67,199 cars, against 1,550,833 cars on steam railways. The total capitalization of electric roads is $2,145,606,645, against $11,688,147,091 for the steam roads. The earnings are $241,584,697, against $1,588,526,037, and the net income $30,955,233, against $241,511,318. The electric roads carry 4,813,466,000 passengers a year, while the steam roads carry but 607,278,121. The electric roads are ahead also in the number killed and injured, the killed numbering 1,216 and injured 47,428, against a record of but 282 killed and 4,988 injured on the steam roads. The latter have over ten times the mileage of the electric roads, but the electric roads run chiefly through the crowded streets of cities.

RAINS!

The crop prospect of the county of Mason has been very greatly improved by the recent rains. The time is at hand now when prospective purchasers of farms and those desiring to sell should "get together." I am in position to sell your farm or to show you a list of very desirable ones in case you contemplate making a purchase.

How would you like a part of the Dan Morgan place?

The elegant home of Wm. R. Gill, with 425 acres of land?

The Mrs. Belle Wells farm of 102 acres at Helena station?

The Arthur Brough Farm of 100 acres near Fernleaf?

The Stroud farm of 116 acres at Minerva?

Fifty-two acres of land belonging to Mrs. Mary A. Boyd, adjoining Minerva.

Then there is the Joe Caldwell farm of eighty-two acres at Mayslick, a most desirable location.

Two hundred acres of land on the Laytham pike. No better land in the world than this.

Sixty-four acres of land near Washington, Ky.

A very desirable farm of less than 200 acres on the Fleming pike.

One of the most attractive homes in the county, located on the Hill city pike.

The S. N. Robinson farm in Charlestown's Bottom.

Farm of 330 acres near Fernleaf, Ky.

One of about the same size near Germantown.

Two small farms on the Fleming pike.

Two farms near Rectorville, Ky.

If you cannot make a selection from this list, call at my office and I can show you others that may be what you are looking for.

In the matter of city property, I have some very attractive bargains. Now is the time to buy as the chances are that the prices will advance rather than decline. It will be no trouble for me to go over my list with you and take you to inspect any piece of property which you may feel like investigating. Telephone me, write me or visit me.

Away Ahead of Schedule!

At the death of an eccentric citizen in an Ohio village it was learned that he himself had written out and entrusted to a marble cutter the legend that was to be graven on his tombstone. When the lettering was completed the villagers all went out to view the epitaph, and this is how it read:

I EXPECTED THIS,
BUT NOT SO SOON

It is the same way with these 10c., 12½c. and 15c. Lawns that we are going to put on sale Friday at one price of 7½c. per yard, and the Mercerized 19c. Lawns at 12½c. per yard. We expected to sell what was left of them cheaper some time this summer, BUT NOT SO SOON. We have a reason. The goods and the prices are what you are after. Leave the reason to us.

HANGED THACKER.

Mob Visited Flemingsburg Last Night and Executed Murderer of Young Gordon.

William Thacker, who three years ago shot and killed a young man named Gordon near Foxport, was taken from the Flemingsburg jail between 12 and 1 o'clock last night by a mob and hanged. There were twenty to twenty-five men in the mob, and they are said to have come from Foxport.

Thacker had been tried twice and was given a life sentence in the penitentiary each time, but his attorneys secured a reversal of the judgment in the Court of Appeals on some technicality. A month or so ago Thacker was returned to the Fleming jail from the pen, and was awaiting his third trial. The jail was visited at midnight one night last week by some parties who tried to enter, and it was thought at the time they were Thacker's friends and had come to aid him in escaping.

Gordon's murder was a cold-blooded one, and the feeling was so strong at the time that Thacker had to be sent to the Maysville jail for safe keeping.

If in Need of a PUMP,

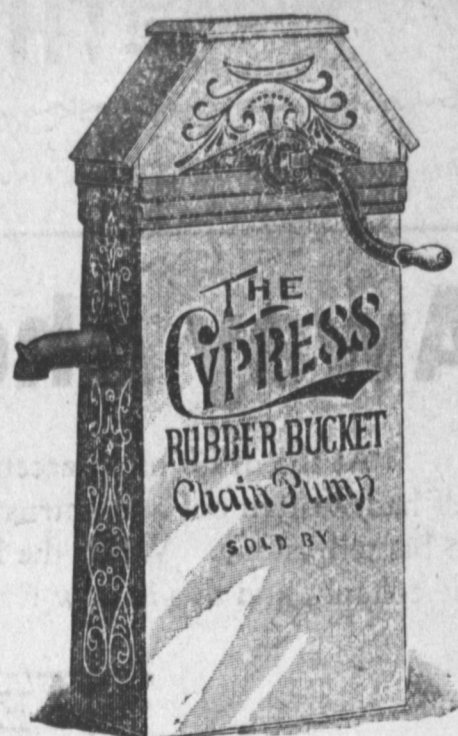

We advise you to buy either the I. X. L. Patent Galvanized Steel Chain Curb and Galvanized Steel Tubing, or the Cypress Rubber Bucket. Both are good ones and we sell lots of them. The I. X. L., being constructed entirely of steel, costs a little more than the other kind, but the difference in price is more than made up in satisfactory service and long life. It always pays to buy the best of everything, and Pumps are no exception to the general rule.

Some Points of Superiority of the I. X. L.

It does not make the water taste as wood tubing does, and, being made of the very best galvanized steel, will not rust, rot or accumulate filth, and leaves the water clear and pure. It is anti-freezing, as a small hole in the reservoir allows the water to run out. Only weighs a half pound to the foot, while water-soaked wood tubing weighs six.

With a good Gas Range you can cook your soup over a slow fire, which it needs, and your roast over a quick fire, and both at the same time. How can you do this anyother way than with a GAS RANGE?

Gas Ranges At Factory Cost Price!

Never was such another opportunity afforded you to obtain so much value for the same money. During the month of June the Gas Company will, if so desired, make a written agreement with any purchaser of a Gas Range to the effect, that, if on the first day of August, said purchaser shall have become dissatisfied with the use of their Range, either for the reason that it will not do the work as represented, or that it costs too much to operate, then the Gas Company will take back the stove and refund any money paid upon its purchase price. The only thing to prevent you taking advantage of this offer is that the Ranges are sold quicker than they can be connected up, so if you are thinking of buying one, now is the time to decide. Over twenty installed during May and not a single complaint. For further particulars see the Gas Company and sample Ranges at Langfels & Co.'s.
